From the Principal's desk....

I spent last week with our Year 4/5/6 students, Miss Beal, Mr. Gilbert and our trusty bus driver, Mr. Hooper, in Kalgoorlie.

We had a fantastic time learning about the history of the early Goldfields, indigenous perspectives, arts and culture in the Goldfields region and the process of mining resources.

Camp provides practical experiences for children which helps to consolidate and build on learning in the curriculum. This camp also sparked lots of curiosity in our students. However, I believe the most important part of camp is the way in which students must actively solve small problems, increase their independence, keep to a timetable, be responsible for themselves and their belongings and work as a team. Being part of a larger group assists in developing these skills and it also helps greatly to strengthen friendships.

I trust that all our campers enjoyed the experience. We had many positive comments about the way the students engaged in all activities and the polite and respectful way in which they conducted themselves. This feedback is always lovely to receive and is a credit to both our school and families.

I would like to sincerely thank Miss Beal, Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Hooper who supervised our students on camp. Many schools elect to not run camps or run them for a shorter duration, so we are very lucky to have staff willing to take on the additional responsibility that camp demands, and this year had a greater challenge given that we were quite a distance away. We are also very fortunate to have a parent volunteer, Mr. Ashley Hooper, willing to meet the additional requirements needed to transport us. Without this, the cost of hiring a bus driver would have put extra pressures on fundraising and ultimately, our families.

Without significant fundraising throughout Term 1, we would not have been able to reduce the cost of camp to $150/student. It would have been close to $700 and shows the strong desire of our community to ensure these experiences can be enjoyed by all our students. Thanks to everyone who has been involved in the following:

- Community Breakfast
- Car Wash
- Easter raffle
- Creation of loom band bracelets

Thanks also to people who have donated to the school:

- Frankland Rummage - please make sure you keep your commitment to a shift at Frankland Rummage
- Community Bank Tambellup Cranbrook (Bendigo Bank)
- Frankland Rural
- Farmanco
- Elders Cranbrook

Walk to school safely

The Cranbrook Police visited the school recently to speak to the students about safely walking and riding bikes. Students then walked down to the CRC and checked on the progress of the park. Unfortunately, it wasn't quite ready for us to play on, but we look forward to testing it out soon!

Simultaneous Storytime

Sloths were the theme at the Frankland River Library last Wednesday as everyone gathered to take part in Simultaneous Storytime across the Nation.

Everyone enjoyed the reading of The Speedy Sloth by Rebecca Young and Heath McKenzie which has a delightful storyline.

This was followed with fun facts about sloths and colouring in for the young ones.

The girls have these items displayed in the library, so drop in and take a look.

If you missed Storytime or attended and would like to revisit the story, the book is available for loan from the library.

PLEASE NOTE

Due to impending changes to the State Library's Inter-Library Loan system and associated courier service, we will temporarily suspend reservations and all Inter-Library loan requests from the 1st of June.

We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause as we await further information and investigate alternative options.

Managers Report

Well the winter weather has definitely found us, with a chill in the air and some rain finally on the way.

As some may have heard Gem is finishing her traineeship at the CRC this week and will be leaving us to move to Denmark. On behalf of myself and the Management Committee we would like to wish her and her family all the best with their move and their new ventures. It has been a pleasure having Gem at the CRC. Her Certificate in Information and Technology has been a huge learning curve for both of us and it has been fantastic to see her complete it. Gem was an amazing asset for the centre and took on every task with enthusiasm. We look forward to welcoming our next trainee in the coming weeks.

With staffing changes there will be a slight change in our opening times over winter. From Monday the 19th of June through until the end of September we will now close at 3pm on a Monday. All other days will remain the same, I will be off on a Thursday afternoon, with Brenda covering for me.

Reminder that we have a day of activities including a delicious lunch on Tuesday the 27th of June for World Elder Abuse Awareness Day. As per the 2021 Census, over 45% of the Shire of Cranbrook's population is over the age of 65, this includes Frankland River itself. Whether you are in this age bracket yourself, nearing it or assisting and caring for someone who is, it is important to know how to care for and how to advocate for the seniors in our lives.

The CRC is running a Photography Competition as a part of our Bloom Festival activities in October this year. Now is the time to start taking your photos and choosing your best for submission. We will have senior, junior and open categories. With a theme of Country Life we are giving the scope of animals, kids, houses, farm equipment, wildlife and nature. There is no limit, so use your imagination and photography skills.

Have a wonderful fortnight.

Larvae in firewood

During the winter period where firewood is often collected and split, our service receives a common enquiry: “I’ve chopped some wood and found these grubs! Are these borers? Is this the European house borer? Is my house at risk???”

The first question we ask to split European house borer (EHB) from many other wood borers is: “What wood are you cutting? Is it pine?” If the answer is no, it’s not going to be EHB.

EHB larvae will only reproduce in seasoned (dry) coniferous timber and wood, including pine, fir and spruce. Of these, pine trees (Pinus species) and pine timbers are abundant in WA.

What if the answer was yes? - If you notice larvae or borer emergence holes in dead pine branches, logs, or untreated pine pallets or timbers, please report this. EHB has the potential to cause major structural damage to buildings constructed with untreated pine timber. Infested wood stored in or around the home is worth investigating.

Who’s on the chopping block?

Most firewood burnt in WA is from native hardwood species and pictured in this article are the larvae of native longicorn beetles (Phoracantha species) in jarrah. These beetles attack live or recently dead/felled Eucalypt trees and do not pose a risk to the timbers in your home.

If you have been chopping firewood for years but are only starting to see these borers, it’s likely the trees the firewood has come from, were stressed or recently felled. Trees stressed by drought or disease are particularly susceptible to borer attack.

Reporting

We can’t all be insect identification specialists, but that doesn’t matter. If something isn’t familiar to you, it’s best to report it rather than ignore it.

When reporting, please include as much information as possible about what’s occurring. Collect and hold onto any insect samples, and if taking photos, include things like a ruler or a pen so the dimensions of insects, holes or other symptoms can be gauged.

If borers are coming out of furniture, timber, or wooden products like bowls, chopping boards or ornaments – report it as soon as possible and we will provide guidance from there.

For more information on EHB and other reportable species like the polyphagous shot hole borer (PSHB), see our webpage agric.wa.gov.au and search EHB or PSHB, or contact us.

News from the Shed

The boys at the Shed have been very productive this month, we have successfully positioned and secured the new Shed extension trusses into position – many thanks to the support we receive from one of our local Elders team for the use of their forklift which we have been able to use over a couple of weekends to facilitate the lifting of the trusses – we have had assistance from Dan during the positioning of the first truss.

We now have all three trusses and columns in position, braced and securely welded – thanks Chris for your assistance in both constructing the trusses and welding the columns and braces into position.

Over the next month we plan to finish installing the purlins and install the roof sheeting before working on the walls. Some of the boys have been helping one of our members install a new fence at the rear of their property – we utilised some of the corrugated iron sheets from the roof of the Shed which we had saved for such a need.

Tony and Don have been busy both in the veggie garden and keeping the grass mowed, we have had some lovely radishes produced from the veggie garden this month, along with the last of this years tomatoes.

The Cranbrook Community Men's Shed, was established to provide a venue for all men living or visiting the Cranbrook Shire with a place to feel welcome to visit and participate in the various activities offered. We always encourage men to call in on a Thursday for a look around and to join us for a cuppa – the kettle is always hot and it doesn't take much for us to take a break and have a cuppa.

We would like to express our thanks to the constant supply of fresh cooked goodies drop off at the Shed on a Thursday from the lovely ladies of Cranbrook.

We continue with opening the Shed on Saturday morning, so if Thursday doesn't suit, why not drop in on a Saturday morning. We hold bimonthly meetings, with our next meeting being June 8th. We will be holding our AGM on the 8th of August. We hold the meetings at 1130, with all attending offered a burger cooked to perfection.

Understanding Anxiety

Anxiety is an umbrella term for feelings of fear, nervousness, apprehensiveness or worry such as negative thoughts and seeing potential threats where they don't exist. Everybody gets anxious at times and some anxiety helps us to function well. But anxiety can become a problem when:

- ◆ It happens too often;
- ◆ It goes on for a long time;
- ◆ It stops us from doing things that we want to do.

Symptoms can be psychological (frequently feeling worried, tired, irritable and weepy with difficulty concentrating) and/or physical (including rapid breathing, rising blood pressure and pounding heart, a sense of restlessness or feeling on edge, muscle tension, sleep disturbance and nausea/sickness).

There is no single cause for anxiety but there are several factors that may contribute to its development:

- ◆ Brain Chemistry - most strongly implicated here are imbalances of serotonin and dopamine that regulate thought and feeling - makes for feeling depressed and anxious;
- ◆ Heredity - anxiety disorders run in families. Children are at higher risk if parents have an anxiety disorder;
- ◆ Life Experiences - any distressing or traumatic experience may be grounds for developing anxiety. Exhaustion and certain medications can also be triggers for anxiety;
- ◆ Drug Use - stimulant drugs like amphetamines and caffeine can trigger anxiety. Prolonged amphetamine use can cause feelings of panic and anxiety that last for years after the drug is stopped.

Some tips that may help you deal with your anxiety include:

- ◆ Self-awareness - identify the symptoms early. Ask yourself what is making me feel this way? You may be able to change the anxiety-making circumstances but if not, you can deal with it better if you acknowledge it;

- ◆ Interpret it positively - anxious about a situation? Instead of viewing it as threatening put a positive interpretation which will reduce the anxiety to a more manageable level;
- ◆ A little anxiety is a good thing - too much is damaging but too little can mean you may not perform to your best ability. View anxiety as a resource you can manage;
- ◆ Diet - the gut flora can get out of balance i.e. use more probiotics and omega-3 foods. Research has shown maintaining a balanced diet can reduce anxiety symptoms;
- ◆ Exercise - boosts levels of vital brain chemicals like serotonin, dopamine and norepinephrine that may reduce stress and anxiety;
- ◆ Relaxation and meditation programs – can help reduce stress, anxiety and depression. You can find many resources for these online; i.e. progressive muscle relaxation;
- ◆ Therapy - there are some good programs that are offered by psychologists and counsellors that help to re-program those unhelpful and negative ways of thinking that underpins anxiety.

Situations, or life events, can come from many places including relationship issues, financial burden, physical health, trauma, or just dealing with difficult times (like seasonal conditions). As these situations develop, we need to take steps to reduce anxiety for ourselves and for those close to us. Remember... before it all gets too much... Talk to a Mate[®]!

We would like to take this opportunity to extend a grateful note of thanks to our annual advertisers who continue to support your local community paper with their paid advertising; some of these have been with us since inception of the local rag in early 1998.

This assists us with production costs and allows FREE fortnightly circulation to residents in our district. Thank you all.
