Cranbrook Police News

Despite a few niggles I have to start with how impressed I was by everyone's diligence during such a busy (and apparently successful) harvest season. Thankyou to all the truck drivers for taking care on our roads and for your lack of complaints with my repetitive breath and drug testing. There have had no incidents that resulted in significant injuries within the Cranbrook sub district this season, which makes it all worthwhile.

Congratulations to those who have been rewarded with the Roadwise gift vouchers for their awesome driving around town, this has been a fun project for me to get involved in and I have several more vouchers to hand out over the next few weeks.

Interestingly, offences in other areas have increased since early December with individuals charged with offences including "Drug Driving", Cultivate Cannabis, Possess Cannabis, Criminal Damage and No Authority to Drive. I have also issued infringements for more serious driving offences including Careless Driving.

There have been some incidents reported by the Shire involving stealing and trespassing offences relating to Shire locations. These incidents are still an active investigation and being looked at in conjunction with similar incidents that occurred in Tambellup and Gnowangerup. Please continue to be vigilant in keeping an eye out for suspicious persons or vehicles and report anything of concern.

Asta's back in town after a second successful knee surgery, thank you to everyone who has kindly inquired about how she is going. Her recovery is going well and we are back to enjoying our afternoon walks around town.

As a part of my role with the Local Emergency Management Committee I am currently working with the Shire to update our register of "Vulnerable People" living within the Shire. The purpose of this register is for us to have an accurate record of people living in our community who may need additional assistance in the case of an emergency. People can be vulnerable for a variety of reasons including but not restricted to them not having transport or mobility, medical or mental health issues that may impact them in an emergency or stressful situation. There are forms available here at the Police Station if you would like one and I have also left them at the Frankland River CRC. If you are unsure about whether you should fill one in, please give me a ring or call into the Station to have a chat about it. Better to be safe than sorry 😊

It's nearly time for school to go back and I am looking forward to another positive year of working with both our schools. If you have events or ideas that you would like Police involvement in, please get in touch with me. As always, the Police Station phone number is 6801 3840. If I am not in, it may divert to my mobile or Albany Police Station. If you are ringing in relation to an incident please call 131 444 directly or 000 if you require urgent Police assistance.

Kind regards
Natalie

SNAKE SAFETY

Bushwalking and hiking are great ways to stay healthy, explore your local area and spend time together these summer holidays.

But remember - it may not just be your mates on the path. Always look at least one meter ahead of you to avoid snakes this summer.

Visit the St John WA website for information on what to do and not to do, signs and symptoms when encountering snakes or to purchase your own Snake Bite Kit!

Southern Forest Machinery under new ownership!

Southern Forest Machinery is a family owned and run business with 8 years of providing you with quality agricultural machinery, motorbikes, parts and servicing across the Manjimup, South-west and Great Southern regions. We would like to officially announce the ownership of Southern Forest Machinery has transitioned to Matt and Felicity Della Gola, the next generation of the Della Gola family.

There will be no change to the products you buy from Southern Forest Machinery.

You will continue to have access to our farmer-focused solutions and services, with no changes to your current ordering process or deliveries. Please call in to our store or refer to our website for the brands, products and parts offered for sale. We have a service team with three experienced mechanics on-board offering mobile and in-house servicing and repairs of large and small machines.

If you have a trading account with Southern Forest Machinery, this will remain active.

If you have an account with us, this will remain active and business will continue as normal. We ask that if there are any changes to your contact details, that you please complete a new customer details form either by calling 9777 2100 or coming in store to see the administration team.

Previously under the guidance of John and Joe, it was your trust that laid the foundations and enabled Southern Forest Machinery to participate as your local agricultural machinery dealership. Today Southern Forest Machinery needs your same support and trust now under the guidance of the next generation of the Della Gola family; we know our success is dependent on your success, and we are excited about what the team at Southern Forest Machinery can offer you!

Help us find you in an emergency

Calling triple zero (000) from within the St John First Responder app will send your GPS coordinates direct to the St John State Operation Centre, making it easier for an ambulance to locate you.

We are delighted you are supporting our fundraising & recycling by helping give containers a new life.

However some items are being dropped into the bins that cannot be recycled through this program, resulting in a lot of unnecessary sorting before delivery day.

Please check your item for the refund logo before placing it in the collection bins.

WHAT CONTAINERS CAN BE SAVED?

Most aluminium, glass, plastic, steel and liquid paper-board drink containers between 150ml and 3L can be saved. Make sure you remove the lids.

Eligible containers must:

- Be included on the scheme's list of products.
- Display the refund mark

WHAT CONTAINERS ARE EXCLUDED?

There are some drink containers that are not eligible.

Excluded containers include:

- Any plain milk containers
- Any glass containers which have contained wine or pure spirits
- Containers 1L or larger which have contained flavoured milk, pure fruit or vegetable juice
- All cordial or syrup containers

Excluded containers

Self-Worth vs Self-Esteem

Self-worth and self-esteem are often confused as being the same, however they are very different. Self-esteem is about measuring ourselves based on external actions, while self-worth is about valuing our inherent worth as a person. In other words, self-worth is about who we are, not about what we do.

Society pushes for the need to have a high self-esteem but the problem with this is that we are always valuing ourselves against others. The competitive nature of men tells us we need to be better and above average to feel good about ourselves (keeping up appearances). When we look at this way of building our self-esteem it can be a losing battle because there will always be someone more handsome, slimmer, richer, owns bigger and better equipment and so on.

Self-esteem is transient and can change in an instant depending on what happens, for example we may be feeling good about a new piece of machinery or the quality of our stud and then someone makes a negative comment and our self-esteem falters, and we feel completely crushed. That's how fragile our self-esteem can be because it can also be fixed by a compliment that bolsters us again. Much anxiety can be created in striving for acceptance or approval and maintaining our ego or pride.

Probably the best way to understand self-worth is to ask ourselves how valuable we are, or how much do we deserve to have something we prize. It is a deep knowing that we are of value, that we are loveable and necessary to this life. One may feel a high self-esteem because they are good at something, yet still not feel they are loveable and worthy. When we have a healthy self-worth (at the very core of ourselves) we have a deep knowing that we are fundamentally a valuable and worthwhile person regardless of:

- ◆ what others may say or do to us;
- ◆ what our successes or failures are;
- ◆ what we win or lose;
- ◆ what we have or don't have.

The concept of self-worth is about knowing that we are always going to be worth more than all of our achievements put together. It is a good thing to think and feel good about ourselves but what happens when our self-esteem is crushed, does that mean we are no longer valuable? Absolutely not, however many people do think that they are no longer valuable.

Self-worth and self-esteem are vital beliefs for empowering oneself. A valid sense of self-worth is necessary to attain love and a sound mind. A valid sense of self-worth acts as a buffer against the possibility of depression and a feeling of worthlessness that can lead to despair or possible suicidal behaviour. Situational distress can come from many areas in our lives, as issues around these life events develop, we need to value our self-worth more than ever to reduce uncertainty for ourselves.
